

Sandra Kalniete is a Member of the European Parliament and Vice-Chair of the EPP Group. She became a founding member of the Popular Front of Latvia and one of the political actors in Latvia's transition, and was appointed as Ambassador to the UN, Minister of Foreign Affairs and European Commissioner. Her memoirs, published in 2001, have rapidly become one of the major references to memorial accounts of the Soviet purges in Latvia.