About the EPP Group

The Group of the European People's Party \(EPP Group\) is the largest and oldest group in the European Parliament. As a centre-right group, the Group is committed to creating a stronger Europe, building on its people and working towards the benefit of all Europeans. It is aiming to reach a more ambitious and a more self-assured Europe where everyone has an equal opportunity to succeed. In its day-to-day business, the Group and its Members can rely on the multinational secretariat providing high quality political, administrative and technical support.

Department

The overall responsibility of the Digital Communications unit within the Digital & Communications Directorate is to ensure the EPP Group and its MEPs are well-represented online. This includes putting in place and maintaining the relevant infrastructure, daily communication online and running communications campaigns in line with the Group's communication strategy.

Job description

The Media/Communications Assistant fulfils a supranational function within the EPP Group Secretariat and carries out, the following functions and duties:

- Providing photographic coverage of all Group events, including meetings, press conferences, and official ceremonies;
- Capture and produce high-quality visuals for publications, websites, and social media platforms, ensuring they align with the Group's communication strategy;
- Edit and deliver images promptly, ensuring timely publication of visual content following Group events;
- Collaborate closely with the Social Media team, contributing creative input and photography-based content ideas to enhance engagement, including cameras, lighting, and accessories;
- Work alongside graphic designers and media specialists to maintain visual consistency across all communication materials;
- Coordinating, maintaining, and ensuring the proper functioning of all photographic equipment;
- Proposing upgrades or replacements of equipment when necessary;
- Edit and deliver images promptly, ensuring timely publication of visual content following Group events;
- Liaising with the Social Media team to plan and execute photographic assignments.

The post of Media/Communications Assistant in the Secretariat of the EPP Group requires significant availability, including a high frequency of events, irregular working hours, and travel. The role demands continuous improvement, flexibility, attention to details, strong organizational and planning skills, and the ability to work effectively in an international team. Suitable candidates must demonstrate the capacity to handle varied tasks, adapt quickly to changing circumstances, and manage competing priorities. Exceptional technical expertise in photography, creativity, and proficiency with editing tools are essential, alongside discretion and the ability to communicate effectively.

Frequent travel outside the place of work is required, in particular several days per month in Strasbourg during the plenary session.
